Taking the Great Leap: Death, Dying and Living...in Every Moment Workshop led by Rev. Myogen Kathryn Stark will explore how facing our inevitable death in every moment can inform our lives in every moment, to face with full awareness, and fearlessness what it means to be mortal beings. Rev. Stark received priest ordination from Sobun Katherine Thanas and dharma transmission from Shosan Victoria Austin. Her work is as an inter-faith hospice chaplain. Sat. Oct. 7, 10:30am-4pm, Carl Cherry Center. $50-75, sliding scale, scholarships available. Bring a bag lunch. Tea/treats will be served. Info: Sara Hunsaker 915-4736, sarahun@comcast.net

Vasubandhu's Yogacara Join us as we continue to explore the Yogacara (i.e. Consciousness-Only) teachings. Sundays Oct. 1, 29, 9:45-11:45am, Oct. 15, 8:30-10am Carmel Valley Activity House, 29 Ford Rd. Suggested donation $10. Info: Shogen 659-5381.

Training in Zen Forms continues Tues. Oct. 17, 5:30pm, Carl Cherry Center. Train in the forms of Zen ceremonies and service ringing bells, leading chants. If interested call Shogen 659-5381.

Hungry Ghost (Segaki) Ceremony Dress up, loosen up, make great noise. Each year, making an effort to uncover & embrace our ever-desirous, grasping, hidden life; we offer to the world, hungry ghosts, good food, our attention and a cacophony of sound. Please join us Oct. 31, 7:30pm.
